CERTIFICATION

I certify that:

- I am at least 65 years old on January 1 of the tax year I am applying for.
- The total prior year adjusted gross income of all persons living in the household on January 1 of the tax year is not more than the adjusted gross income in section 62 of the US Internal Revenue Code. The maximum household adjusted gross income to qualify for the Senior Citizen Exemption in 2024 is $36,614.

I qualify for this exemption under Florida law. I am a permanent resident of the State of Florida and I have owned and occupied this property described above for 25 years or more. Under s. 196.131(2), F.S., any person who knowingly and willfully gives false information to claim homestead exemption is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable by a term of imprisonment up to 1 year or a fine up to $5,000 or both. Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have read this application and Statement of Adjusted Gross Income and the facts in it are true.

INSTRUCTIONS

This exemption applies only to the property taxes of the taxing authority granting the exemption. To qualify for an additional homestead exemption under Section 196.075, Florida Statutes, for persons age 65 years or older, the household income of all persons living in the home cannot be more than the household adjusted gross income defined below.

As used on this application, the term:

“Household” means a person or group of persons living together in a room or group of rooms as a housing unit, but the term does not include persons boarding in or renting a portion of the dwelling.

“Household income” means the adjusted gross income in Section 62 of the US Internal Revenue Code, of all members of a household. (This is the “Adjusted Gross Income” amount reported on IRS Form 1040.) Definitions: Section 196.075, Florida Statutes

Defining Household Income

Additional homestead exemption for persons 65 and older applies only to the property taxes levied by the taxing authority granting the exemption as per Section 196.075, Florida Statutes.

To qualify for an additional homestead exemption of up to $50,000 for persons aged 65 and older, the "Household Income" (total adjusted gross income) of all persons living in the home cannot exceed the maximum household adjusted gross income.

Definitions:

Household – A person or group of persons living together in a room or group of rooms as a housing unit, but the term does not include persons boarding in or renting a portion of the dwelling.

Household Income – The adjusted gross income of all members of a household, as defined in Section 62, United States Internal Revenue Code. This is the adjusted gross income amount reported on IRS form 1040.

Examples of Supporting Documentation:

- Rental Receipts
- Pension Statements
- Annuity Statements
- Income Statements
- Interest Statements
- Wage and Earning Statements
- Form W Series
- Form 1099 Series
- Form 1042 Series
- Form 1065 Series
- Form 4506
- Social Security Benefits worksheet, etc.
- Any other documentation supporting the applicant's household income

Income documentation of all persons living in the household should be submitted before June 1st.

No documentation will be accepted after June 1st.

According to the IRS:

- A person cannot file Form 1040EZ if they have taxable social security benefits. The person must file Form 1040 or Form 1040A
- If you have social security benefits, they are not automatically included in adjusted gross income. If your gross income is below the filing thresholds for federal income tax, consult the IRS to verify that no portion of social security income is included in adjusted gross income to meet the current Florida limit on adjusted gross income as factored for cost of living.
- If your combined benefits and other income exceed other applicable thresholds, some portions of your social security income may be taxable. Social security benefits include monthly survivor and disability benefits. They do not include supplemental security (SSI) payments which are not taxable. Consult the IRS for portions of social security income that may be taxable based on current formulas.
